

THE GREAT COLLEST. Tremendous Crowd Expected at To-Morrow's Football Game, Betting on the Big Event Princeton's Coaches Think That Yale Will Get a Surprise. SENSATION AMONG AMATEURS.

GENERAL SPORTING NEWS OF THE DAY

New York, Nov. 22.—Football people are full of gossip about the coming Yale-Princeton match, and there are nearly as many predictions about the outcome of the Thanksgiving Day game as there are mosquitoes in Jersey. From as far West as Kansas City and as far East as Calais, Me., there have already come to this city lovers of the game who intend to see the struggle on Manhattan field. They are veritable enthusiasts who journey so long a distance, but it is almost an assured fact that a grand contest will reward them for their trouble. Granted that Thursday is a fine day, Manhattan field will overflow with a throng such as never invaded it before. But it will be an uncommonly well-dressed crowd, and it will be decorous to a nicety in its demonstrations of approbation for good and clever plays. The committee in charge of the sale of admission and grandstand tickets are now able to form some estimate of the number of persons who will attend the game, and are confident that the crowd will be larger than that of any previous year.

Seats Are Selling Fast. The seats in the other covered stand on the south side of the field are also gone, so that the only stands on which seats can now be procured are those at either end of the field. As the demand for seats has been so great, the committee have decided to sell the seats from the slowest to the fastest, but fully 100 more had been disposed of to-day than at the corresponding time last year. Out of a total of 25,000 seats more than 24,000 have been taken.

Hundreds of persons, the committee says, have already been turned away disappointed. The universal desire to see the game, however, is best shown by the sale of the admission tickets. There are 15,000 tickets in Manhattan field for about 15,000 persons, and in former years the majority of those who bought admission tickets have done so on their way to the game. This year, however, more than half of the admission tickets have already been taken.

The betting on the game has now become lively. The Yale men are especially anxious to avail themselves of the available odds, for, although Yale won the game from last year, they lost slightly on their bets. There was more money on the Yale side of the Springfield game than on its result. Many Yale's supporters who won money on the result of the game are more than they were because Yale failed to score more than six points.

Getting Their Money Carefully. They are now anxious to make up their losses and the lowering of the odds on the Yale-Princeton game, due to the somewhat poor showing made by Yale at Springfield, has given them a fair opportunity. Several small wagers at odds of 5 to 4 or 5 to 3 on Yale have already been made. It is not likely that Yale will win by at least ten points. A number of other bets ranging between 25 and 500 have also been made. It is not likely that private wagers have been made on the result of the game.

Despite the talk about McCormick's cool headedness, he really became very much rattled at various crises of the contest at Springfield, and if the spectators had watched him closely they would have seen him look to the side of the field before giving his signals in order that he could see what signals two men in the space set apart for the graduate coaches made with their hands.

The Yale eleven will probably line up just as they did at Springfield, Laurie Bliss and Butterworth being on the right, Graves and Tatter "Pop" Bliss' place, but this is not a surety. Princeton's team will probably line up in this order: Randolph, left end; Lea, left tackle; Wheeler, left guard; Balliett, center; Hall, right guard; Harold, right tackle; Trencard, right end; Morse, quarter back; Fox, left halfback; Galt, right halfback; Homans, fullback; substitutes, Flint, Fausch, McCauley. The team took its last practice yesterday afternoon. Most of the players spent in rehearsing the signals and what that will be used if possible. To-morrow will be a very big game. It is 50 per cent better than it was eight days ago. We got a pretty good idea of Yale's game, and will spare no effort to beat the blue on Thursday. Phil King has several good tricks if he can get an opportunity to put them into execution. The only thing we have to regret are that our tackles and one of our ends are rather weak. Two or three of the men have not played for two weeks. Had we all the men for Thursday's game which we started out with in the early part of the season nothing could prevent our winning the game.

THE CANADIANS TO-MORROW.

Probably one of the greatest treats to local football patrons will be the appearance of the Canadian champion football players at Exposition Park to-morrow afternoon. Beyond all doubt they are the greatest team of football players that have ever visited this city. They have been champions of Canada for four years, and many of them represented Canada against the English teams in England last year. They will have one of the best teams in the United States to face to-morrow in the Pittsburgh team, and a remarkable contest may be looked for if the contest is favorable. Last evening the Pittsburgh Association club held a meeting at Tann's Hotel and final arrangements were made for to-morrow's game. After the meeting Secretary Matthews said: "I think the Canadians will be a surprise to-morrow when they tackle our fellows. I know that the Canadians are a great team, and that means that there will be some football playing at Exposition Park." Mr. Matthews also said that a large number of people from McKeesport, Braddock, New Castle, Homestead and other nearby towns will see the contest.

Couler Cannot Act. Manager Borbhour is disappointed in not getting Mr. Couler, of Johnstown, to referee the football game at the Exposition to-morrow. Mr. Couler's business arrangements prevent his coming here. Efforts are being made to secure Mr. Hamilton, of Washington, Pa., who is quite a capable man.
